

KANTCHO KANEV

Kantcho Kanev:"Reflexions: One imperceptible feeling roves in the infinity of my soul. I cannot dew fine the causes of it. Let this indefiniteness tortures me like an untouched secret. I will ask every thought whether I am not set out to the temple, embrace this magic – life, unconscious of myself. Isn't it deed all this escapism of the loneliness? Often I ask myself what is the reason to be on this world still? I don't dare to answer completely; not for my fear of mistakes but for the fear to might find an ultimate answer. Let me rove unflagging in the depths of my ego! Let me never find answers of my questions! This is, I believe the way to gain some strength for you, Life...! ...With my paintings I search the path which will lead me out of the existence; the path rejecting this regime of norms. I wish to look at myself like a father, like a son, like a child, like a wise man, like a selfish being, woven out of foolish vanity, like a part of the Universe!
